

My Beach Art

My Beach Art is dedicated to all those who appreciate the beach and all the beauty it offers.

I usually walk our local beaches with my dog, Blue, leaving our footprints (and paw prints). The forgiving sand is a soulful therapy for us, both. The texture of the sand, the ocean breeze, the sound of the crashing waves on the foreshore is my idyllic paradise, soothing both our souls.

A favourite pastime, searching for seashells is a great way to spend our time at the beach. I am so lucky to find such treasures to create the pieces of work you will see here. All my creations are made from shells and beach 'flotsam and jetsam' washed ashore by tides, storms and the world turning.

I create pieces that will fit right in to into your home. To add a sense of natural beauty. To wash over your senses. To complete a table, a bookshelf or a lonely window sill. It may jolt a memory and take you back to a place from your childhood or a romantic rendezvous.

All of my pieces are unique. I only use what I find, so each shell has its' own story. Most are not perfect, but I love that they have been sculptured by the forces of nature. If you see something you like, please feel free to contact me to acquire your next unique piece or let's chat about what unique piece I could create for you.

Don't hesitate to go to my Face book page and share your Beach stories. Post photos and tell me where it is and feelings and thoughts or even poems related to the Beach. Thanks for visiting my page and becoming a part of 'my story'.
